motor vehicles The drivers of the vehicles had been detached from a motor transport unit in Wriezen.

- 2. The trucks were Dodges and came from Soviet Army stocks. They were allegedly duplicated in the U.S.S.R. They were designed as personnel carriers, having benches to seat one squad and facilities for equipment and ammunition. The passenger cars were Volkswager and came from former German army stocks and stocks of requisitioned civilian cars. They were allotted by the Potsdam motor traffic control office. The motorcycles were recent models from the Eisenach BMV plant.
- 3. It was said that all VP units belonging to the "Ring um Berlin" were to be motorized. For this the Soviet Army has placed an adequate number of motor vehicles at the disposal of the Volkspolizei.

25X1A Comment. The Havelberg VP school has been reported twice by the same source but has not been confirmed. See

It was probably confused with the VP school in Gloewen, north of Havelberg, which is confirmed.

25X1A  Comment. Apparently Soviet GAZ-63 trucks.
